

ROUND UP STARTS OUT IN CHEYENNE

THOUSANDS GREET FORMER PRESIDENT WITH CHEERS
THIS MORNING.

IT IS TEDDY ROOSEVELT

Cow Boys, Indians, Soldiers and Cow Girls Passed in Review Before Him.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 27.—This was Roosevelt day in Cheyenne and it was observed in fourth of July fashion.
The nation's former chief executive had traveled thousands of miles to accept an invitation to speak in the Wyoming capital, and the people, regardless of political affilations showed their appreciation by greeting him with a warm and heartily welcome that is not likely to be exceeded on his present tour.
Thousands gathered here today to meet former President Roosevelt's special train, came to cheer Roosevelt, the cowboy, who runs a brand on the Little Missouri ranch; the former broncho "Peder", and Dakota deputy sheriff.

A typical western welcome was extended to the guest by the cowpunchers, Hox and Shoshone braves in paint and war bonnets, and soldiers in blue and khaki from Ft. Russell.

Roosevelt was greeted by Gov.
Brooks, Senator Warren, and General Smith commanding department from Missouri. From the industrial club parade Roosevelt reviewed the parade of five thousand regular troops, fifteen hundred cowboys and cowgirls, two hundred Sioux, Shoshone, squaws and papooses and the elite and select squadron completed the parade which required four hours and a half to pass.

After luncheon Roosevelt drove to the frontier grounds and delivered his address and also witnessed the final championship roping contest of frontier sports that will ever be held in the west.

Denver in Readiness.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 27.—The finishing touches to the preparations for the visit of Colonel Roosevelt and the convention of the United Spanish War Veterans, which the former President will attend Monday, are being put on today. Delegates and visitors to the convention have begun to arrive in considerable number and it is predicted that between 15,000 and 20,000 people will be in the city by Monday noon. The downtown section of the city is being on a gala appearance. Building after building is being draped with flags and sidewalk to roof and the national colors are everywhere in the shape of shields, bunting and countless numbers of flags.

The Roosevelt special train is due at noon from Cheyenne and will be met by a large crowd of people at the Union Station. A reception committee of 100 will be at the station to greet the distinguished visitor. Following a parade the ex-President will go to Overland Park where he will be entertained at luncheon by the first under the auspices of the Colorado Live Stock Association and the second before the convention of the Spanish War Veterans. In the evening he will be the guest of honor at a "round-up" dinner at El Jobel Temple, where he will have an opportunity to meet many of his old comrades of the ranch.

KINDLING WOOD IS TO BE LOOKED INTO

Alleged Trust in This Product Will be Subject of Inquiry by Government.

New York, Aug. 27.—The government is preparing to bring action against forty defendants as members of the Kindling Wood Trust which is said to control the business of more than twenty-five millions a year, according to an announcement of the official department of justice. The grand jury has been investigating the combination.

AVIATOR DROPPED INTO LOWER BAY

Machine Was Wrecked Out the Aero-plane Driver Was Rescued By a Tug.

New York, Aug. 27.—While attempting to fly an airplane from Sheephead Bay to Fort Hamilton this morning "Bud" Murs, an aviator, was caught in a heavy blast of wind and carried to the lower bay where his machine fell into the water a hundred feet below. Murs was uninjured and picked up by a tugboat.
His airplane was wrecked.

CHICAGO POLICE ADMIT THEY HAVE NO EVIDENCE

But Will Hold King Until He Can Prove Whereabouts on Night of Murder.

The Chicago police admit today that they have no evidence against Robert King, the young attorney, arrested on a charge of having some knowledge of the murder of Dr. Michaelis, but he will be held until he can prove his whereabouts the night of the murder.
Miss O'Reilly, at whose home he boarded, says he was in her company all evening, and at her home all night.
King could not remember where he was.

Showing Speed of His Sire: "Mac Rex," belonging to George Thurman, won a race at Lodi this week with a record of 2:23 1/4. The trotter was sired by "The Rex" (2:21 1/4) owned by E.
Ray Lloyd of this city.

TOWN CHAIRMEN OF MILWAUKEE CO. SUE FOR REPRESENTATION

Want Seats of County Board—Suit of Interest to the Entire State (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Milwaukee, Aug. 27.—Suit was formally started today of interest to every county board in Wisconsin when the chairmen of the towns of Milwaukee county demanded that they be allowed to sit on the board. The present law, they say, bars the towns from representation. This action is preparatory to a movement to consider the Milwaukee city and county government.

Warning on Child Paralysis.
A bulletin was issued today against infantile paralysis by the health department. The bulletin says that there is no case of the disease in the city at present but that it is most likely to develop when it is most likely to be contagious and the greatest prevention should be taken to cure for any affected child. Hundreds of cases are reported elsewhere.

BAD MONEY PLANT LOCATED NEAR CITY OF WASHBURN, WIS.

Passing of Much Counterfeit Coin Leads Authorities to Suspect Gang is Working in Vicinity.

Washburn, Wis., Aug. 27.—The authorities are convinced that an extensive gang of counterfeiters is working in this part of the state and the sheriff has men out all over the country. Bad money is being passed in business places here, and in Mason and it is suspected that the counterfeiters are also forging checks, for bad payroll checks of the Willow River Lumber company are being found also.

BITE OF RATTLER MAY PROVE FATAL

Peter Argus, Potomac Section Foreman, in Serious Condition From Encounter With Venomous Snake.

Potomac, Wis., Aug. 26.—Peter Argus, a railway section foreman, who was bitten by a rattlesnake, while working on the right of way, is in a serious condition, but the doctors think he has a chance of recovery.

Hydrophobia Feared.
Maulsboro, Wis., Aug. 27.—Lomb Meyer, who was bitten by his pet dog this week, has been hurried to the Proctor Institute at Madison, for the dog was found to have had the rabies.

3 ESCAPE DEATH IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Sparta Man and Family Got Off Luckily When Their Auto Went Over Thirty Foot Embankment.

Sparta, Wis., Aug. 27.—James Hoyt of St. Louis and three members of his family narrowly escaped death, when their automobile plunged over a 30-foot embankment near here. The machine was wrecked but the occupants escaped unhurt.

THINK SUPPOSED CAPTAIN IMPOSTOR

Army Officers Want Man Who Claims To Be Captain Stillman Held As An Impostor.

Madison, Aug. 27.—Army officers from Chicago are demanding that the Federal officials hold, as an impostor, the man who claims to be a nephew of Senator Tillman and a captain in the United States Army. They are convinced that he is an impostor though the real Captain Tillman is known to be in Wisconsin. The man who claimed gave his real name as William A. Kapach of Chicago.

WEDDING TODAY AT COURT HOUSE

Oliver O. Markel of Rockford and Miss Bertha M. Felt Took Vows Before Justice Lango.

Oliver O. Markel of Rockford and Miss Bertha M. Felt of Janesville accused a marriage license and wedding permit to wed at once this morning and the ceremony was performed at the court house by Justice Charles Lango.

Lost and Found: J. R. Hensdale of the town of Rock reported at the police station this afternoon that a thief had entered his home during the forenoon and stolen a vest containing a $10 gold watch, a solid gold chain worth $40, Knights Templar and 2nd degree emblems, and other valuables.
Lanes one of the employees found the vest with all its contents intact in the barn.

SOME BIG GUNS TO BE FIRED AT THE CONSERVATION CONGRESS.

HISTORIANS MEET AT BRUSSELS EXPO.

Tomorrow and Nearly Every Civilized Country Will be Represented at the Conference.

Brussels, Aug. 27.—The International Congress of Historians, which is to have its formal opening here tomorrow, promises to be one of the most important of the series of international conferences held in conjunction with the Brussels exposition. Nearly every civilized country will be represented. The delegation from the United States is headed by Dr. Gal-lard Hunt of the Library of Congress at Washington, and Dr. Humber Rowland of Mississippi, the last-named representing the American Historical Society.

IRISH-AMERICANS' BIG TRACK MEET

At Chicago Tomorrow Has Attracted Strong Delegations of Star Performers From East.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—One or more records are expected to go by the board when 300 of the foremost athletes of the country come together at the new American League park tomorrow in the big international meet under the auspices of the Chicago Irish-American A. A. The East has sent a strong delegation of star performers, including Matt McGrath, Melvin Sheppard, John Flanagan, Martin Sheridan, Con Leahy and Jack Ryan.

WILL OPEN A NEW CANADIAN LINE

Grand Trunk's 250 Mile Section Between Winnipeg and Superior Junction Ready for Traffic.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 27.—Next week the Grand Trunk Pacific railway will celebrate the fifth anniversary of the beginning of its construction by opening the Winnipeg and Superior Junction, 250 miles. The great project of a national railway was started in September, 1905, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier turned the first sod at Fort William. At about the same time the actual construction was commenced on the prairie section west of Winnipeg.
Since then thousands of men have been at work with the result that the great project, which means so much to western Canada, is rapidly nearing completion.

The line from Winnipeg to Edmonton was opened a year ago. The completion of the Superior Junction branch will allow the road to be operated from Fort William through to Edmonton, about 1,100 miles. This will enable the new transcontinental line to move this year's grain crop next month.

The placing of Edmonton, which is in the heart of the great wheat belt, in direct communication with Fort William, the great grain outlet for western Canada, marks another epoch of significance to both cities. Edmonton appears destined to become the great railroad center of Alberta and will rapidly take its place among the great cities of the west. It is probable the opening of the new line will be appropriately celebrated.

PACIFIC COAST TOURNEY FOR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Del Monte, Cal., Aug. 27.—The tenth annual tournament for the men's amateur championship of the Pacific Coast Golf Association opened on the links here today and will continue until next Thursday.

ELGIN RACERS ARE MAKING LONG RUNS

Crowd Estimated at a Hundred Thousand Watching the Autos Make The Trip.

Elgin, Aug. 27.—A crowd estimated at a hundred thousand gathered today to see the track automobile drivers go 305.03 miles for the Elgin National trophy.
An endless stream of machines laden with enthusiasts occupied roads between here and Chicago, gay with flags and banners.
Among the entrants was Livingston, the winner of yesterday's feature event. Grant, who captured the last Vanderbilt race and Barney Oldfield.
At ten o'clock the cars were sent away at thirty seconds intervals. The stands were overflowed with spectators and the entire course was lined with them.

TORPEDO BOATS ARE FORCED ONTO ROCKS

One Vessel Will be Floated Easily the Other Is Fast on Bad Reef Off Scottish Coast.

London, Aug. 27.—The British torpedo boat destroyer Success and Torpedo boat No. 12 were blown ashore on the Scotch coast in a gale this morning. The Success is aground and it is hoped that it may be pulled off, but the torpedo boat is hard upon rocks, and seriously damaged. There were no casualties.

RUSSIAN CZAR IS ARRESTED.

Steps Across German Border Incognito and Gendarmes Get Him.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—The czar of all the Russias has been arrested by a German policeman according to a story printed by the Tagblatt. Nicholas, with a grand duke, slipped across the frontier incognito, according to the story. During their stay at Wolf's Nicholas 2nd of Russia.

Garten they entered a park whose use is forbidden to the public. They were arrested by gendarmes. Taking their predicament as a joke, they went to the police station and were photographed before the error was discovered. They were finally released with profound apologies, offered by officers ranging in rank from the policeman to ministers and ambassadors.

JANESVILLE MAN AND A MAUSTON YOUNG LADY WED

Miss Genevieve Randall of Mauston, Wis., and Ed. Dwyer of this city were married this morning at the Methodist parsonage this morning by Rev. T. D. Williams.

L. Hilton are rejoicing over the advent of an infant daughter yesterday.

KING SENDS GIFT TO AN AGED CLOWN

James Doughty, Who Was Performer in Covent Garden Sixty Years —His 92nd Birthday the Occasion.

London, Aug. 27.—James Doughty, the famous old clown, received a congratulatory message and a gift of money from the King today on the occasion of his ninety-second birthday. Doughty is believed to be the oldest entertainer still before the public. He was a clown at Covent Garden over sixty years ago. With his troupe of performing dogs he has been a familiar figure at Brighton the last thirty years.

TOLSTOI NEARING 82ND MILESTONE

Famous Novelist and Social Reformer Has Already Received Flood of Congratulatory Messages.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—A despatch from Yasnaya Polyana says that a veritable flood of congratulatory messages is being received there in anticipation of the eighty-second birthday anniversary of Count Leo Tolstoy, who was born Aug. 28, 1828. The advices state that the health of the famous novelist and social reformer is somewhat improved, though the advance of age has made it necessary for him to curtail his work to a considerable extent.

TRI-STATE TENNIS TOURNAMENT IN OHIO

Opened on Cincinnati Club's Courts Today—Championship Play at St. Paul.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 27.—The best tennis talent of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky was represented on the courts of the Cincinnati Tennis Club today at the preliminary opening of the annual tri-state tennis tournament. The play will continue through the greater part of the coming week and from all indications the tournament will be one of the most successful affairs of its kind that has ever been pulled off in Cincinnati.

Minnesota, Aug. 27.—Play in the annual Minnesota state championship tennis tournament began today on the courts of the Town and Country club with the preliminary round in singles. The participants include many well known players, whose high standard of play gives promise of good competition.

UNIONISM'S FUTURE TOPIC OF ARTICLE

President Compers Sees Future of Unionism in an Article Published Today.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—In an editorial in the national labor magazine today, President Compers is enthusiastic over the future of unionism, saying that the American people is coming to realize the necessity of trade unions.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN IS OPENED IN TEXAS

Corpus Christi, Texas, Aug. 27.— Republicans of the Fifteenth district met here today and named Noah A.
Ten of Brownsville to make the race against Congressman Carter, whom the Democrats have nominated for another term. The convention was made the occasion for the formal opening of the Republican state campaign. J. O. Terrell of San Antonio, Republican candidate for governor, was the principal speaker.

REACHES LONDON ON HIS RETURN VOYAGE

Inspector Dew With His Prisoners Arrived in Liverpool on the Steamer Megantic.

Liverpool, Aug. 27.—Inspector Dew having charge of Dr. Crippen and Miss Levey, brought back from Canada in connection with the supposed murder of Crippen's wife, Belle Elmore, arrived this afternoon on the Steamer Megantic. Dew, with the prisoners, immediately boarded the train for London.

BEGGS FINED FOR LICENSE VIOLATION

Milwaukee Street Car Man Paid $5 and Costs For Alleged Non-Payment of Fees, According to Old Franchise.

Milwaukee, Aug. 27.—John I. Beggs, head of the street car company, charged with violating an alleged old franchise provision of an old franchise, taken over by the present street car company, was found technically guilty in district court and fined $5 and costs. Notice of appeal was filed at once. Judge Neeshan said he, as judge of a minor court, could not, for that reason, pass on the constitutionality of the law that the street car company should pay a license fee of $15 on every car operated on Milwaukee streets. The fine was imposed to perfect an appeal. The Socialist administration claims the company owes the city $7,000 on back license.

ROOSEVELT TO ADDRESS U. S. A.
W. V. AT DENVER

RATE BATTLE AT CHICAGO

Montreal To Welcome Vanutelli—Political Clash At Tepeka—Porto Rican Legislature Meets.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—Former President Roosevelt's whose speaking tour in the West has aroused the keenest sort of interest among politicians throughout the country, will start the week in Denver, where he will speak Monday at the opening of the National convention of Spanish War Veterans. From Denver he will proceed to Orem, Utah, Kas., stopping there Wednesday to attend the dedication of a State park on the site of the old Osmawabie buttefield. Kansas City will entertain him Thursday and during the remainder of the week he will be the guest of Omaha, delivering public speeches in both cities. He will remain over Sunday in Sioux Falls.

What promises to be one of the greatest commercial battles in the history of the United States will be opened in Chicago Monday, when the Interstate Commerce Commission begins its inquiry into the propriety of the general advances in freight rates recently announced by the Western transportation lines.

On Wednesday a statue of the late Thomas B. Reed, speaker of the national house of representatives, will be unveiled in his home city of Portland Me., with an oration by Congressman McClellan of Massachusetts.

A magnificent public welcome is being prepared for Cardinal Vanutelli the papal legate to the Ecumenical Congress in Montreal, who is due to reach that city Friday accompanied by numerous other delegates to the congress from all over Europe.

At Nelson, British Columbia, Sir Wilfrid Laurier will hold a conference with representatives of the Portland and Spokane chambers of commerce to discuss an international project for deepening the Columbia River, making it navigable from the sea to West Robson, B. C.

The special session of the Porto Rican legislature, which Gov. Colton has called to meet Tuesday, will consider measures to lease the Government telephone and telegraph lines to a private corporation, to safeguard the interests of the island in the importation of seeds and tree cuttings, and to create funds for the erection of a million-dollar hotel in San Juan.

On Saturday a notable celebration of the 20th anniversary of the Church of England in Canada will begin in Halifax. Eminent clergymen from all parts of Canada and from England will take part.

The American group of delegates to the conference of the Interparlia-mentary Union, which is to begin its sessions in Brussels Monday, will present several resolutions looking toward the establishment of permanent peace between the nations of the world.

A clash between the progressives and conservatives in Italy is likely to occur when the Republican party council of Rome meets in Rome Tuesday to promulgate a platform for the state and congressional campaigns. Other national events of the week will include the congressional primaries in Maryland, the Republican state convention in Iowa, the Democratic state convention in Georgia, and the Democratic primaries in South Carolina. In the latter a contest between six aspirants for the governor-ship will be decided.

Included among other events and meetings which will contribute to the news of the week will be the national encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans at Denver, which will have Colonel Theodore Roosevelt as its guest, the opening of the Ohio Valley Exposition at Cincinnati, the annual meeting of the American Bar Association in Chattanooga, the convention of the Atlantic Deep-sea Waterways Association in Providence, the Pacific seamen's convention in San Francisco, the fourth international conference of State and taxation in Milwaukee, the opening of the Bunkin exhibition at St. John N. B., the conference of the International Union for Co-operation in Paris, the opening of the Wilson, Cal., and the opening of a three days' aviation meet near Boston under the auspices of the aeronautic society of Harvard University.

SHERBROOKE FAIR OPENS AT QUEBEC

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 27.—With the promise that all attendance records will be broken this year, the annual Sherbrooke Fair opened today and will continue until September 3. An unusually liberal prize offering has served to fill all departments of the fair with choice exhibits. The display of live stock and agricultural products is especially notable. A four days' speed program will be carried out in conjunction with the exhibition.

Every day we open up something new for the young fellows. The "Nob" shown above in patent and gun metal $3.50 and $4.00, is one of the leaders.

HALL & HUEBEL

How Did He Know?

On the first night of a new piece, a pretty young actress advanced to the front of the stage taunting in an exquisite new costume. "That must have cost 3,000 francs!" said, audibly, a lady who sat with her husband in the front row. "No, no—only 2,500," he said, mechanically. Then he found her eye fixed on him, and was silent.

MOTHER AND INFANT DROWNED.

Horse, Frightened by Engine, Leaps Into Abandoned Quarry.

Joliet, Ill., Aug. 27.—Mrs. Adolph Johnson, wife of a prominent building contractor of this city, and her two-year-old daughter, met death here last night in an abandoned quarry following a runaway accident. Her husband and six-year-old son, Fred, barely escaped with their lives, and following the first accident five men engaged in rescue work also were thrown into the water and barely escaped with their lives.

The members of the Johnson family were driving the family horse when, at the Jackson street crossing of the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern railroad, it took fright at a switch engine and ran away. The horse dashed into the heavy rail which separated the quarry from the street, but it snapped like matchwood, and horse, carriage and passengers plunged into 30 feet of water, the surface of which was 15 feet below the street level.

DOWIE'S BROTHER IS ARRESTED.

Police See Confidence Game in Effort to Unearth $20,000,000.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 27.—"Dr." James Alexander Dowie, the "Bishop" Schraeder, who have been practicing divine healing and proselyting for a strange religious cult in St. Joseph for the last ten days, were arrested by the police on a charge of attempting to work a confidence game. They were seeking to persuade certain gullible persons to finance an expedition to lift a treasure of pirate gold of $20,000,000 buried on an island in the Gulf of Mexico, 146 years ago.

"Doctor" Dowie inherited that island and its cache from his illustrious brother, John Alexander Dowie of Zion City, Ill., fame.

ARMY OFFICER IS ARRESTED.

Man Claiming to Be Capt. B. F. Tillman Is Charged With Forgery.

Eau Claire, Wis., Aug. 27.—A man giving the name of Benjamin P. Tillman, said to be captain in the Twenty-seventh United States Infantry, was arrested here on a charge of forgery filed at Madison, Wis.

He says he is innocent and claims to be a nephew of United States Senator Tillman. The prisoner was in the uniform of a captain when arrested, had four other uniforms in his baggage and said he was on his way to Fort Snelling, Minn. He declared he was a victim of circumstances.

END N. Y. CLOAKMAKERS' STRIKE

Settlement Arranged at Conference, Grievances Go to Committee.

New York, Aug. 27.—The cloakmakers' strike, involving several thousand workers and scores of manufacturers, will be settled within twenty-four hours. The strike has been in progress for several weeks.

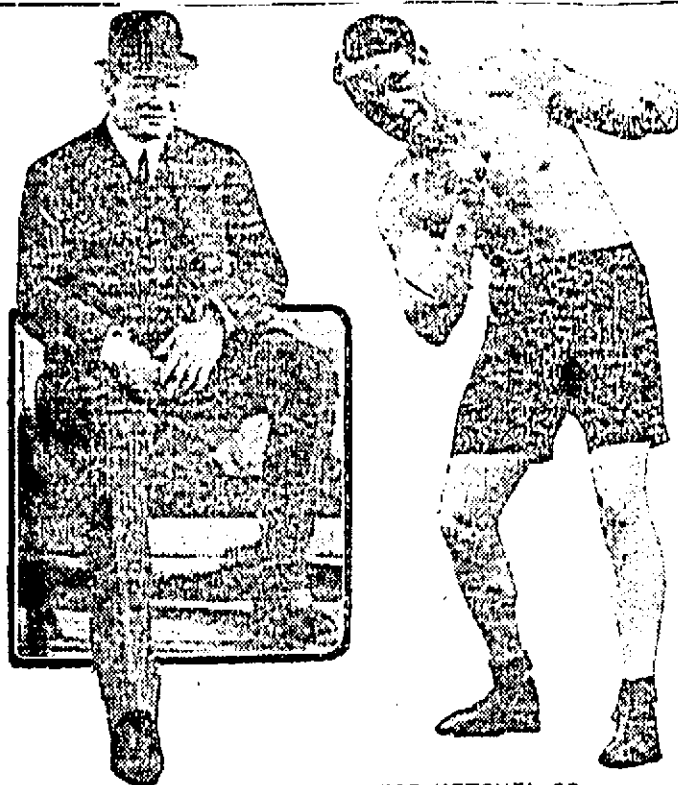

Settlement of the strike was brought about by a conference in which it was agreed that the question of hours and wages should be settled by a neutral committee. Union labor is to be favored and shop conditions are to be improved.

It Will Pay You to Have Your Tires Retreaded

If you don't believe it pays to have your tires retreaded how are you going to prove that it didn't pay these men whom we mention below? It did pay them and will pay you in the same proportion. Here is what our retreads did for them:

Mr. P. H. Korst has gotten 7,000 miles of tire service out of our retreads on his car. It cost him less than one new tire and they are still giving good service. The average new casing only gives from 3,500 to 4,000 miles of service. Ask Mr. Korst if it paid him.

Mr. Harry Shurtlett has driven his delivery car 2,500 miles on one of our retreads. It is still in good condition with a good prospect of going that much farther. It cost him about one-third the price of the new tire and already he has received twice as much service for the money expended. Did it pay him? Ask him.

These men are getting twice as much as they could out of new tires. And there are 90 others equally well satisfied.

It will pay you to investigate.

"We Want a Bookkeeper"

We received this call from the firm with whom we placed a stenographer last week. That firm, like many others, has learned that OUR STUDENTS CAN DO THINGS. When we place a student with a firm, we know that sooner or later we will receive another call from that firm.

Our business is a business of service. We serve the young people by training them for good positions. We serve the business man by furnishing him efficient help. The business man wants those who know—those who can do. He wants bookkeepers and stenographers that have been trained in modern and up-to-date business methods.

Twentieth Century Bookkeeping

is the most modern and up-to-date presentation of the subject of accounting that is published today. The work proceeds from the easy to the difficult, from the simple to the complex. It is the natural and scientific method. To be a successful bookkeeper or stenographer you must know your business. You must know how to apply your knowledge. You must work to the best advantage and work systematically. Just here is the value of our INTERCOMMUNICATION OFFICE PRACTICE. It is the nearest approach to actual business that has yet been evolved in the field of business education. It affords both bookkeeping and shorthand students a practical application of business methods. This work is carried on between this and our Beloit school. Here for the first time the student feels the weight of real responsibility. He cannot step across the room and sit things up with his neighbor. He deals with people miles away and must do the thing right. He is responsible for the management of his business. RESULT: Careful, critical, cautious, office workers. THE PEOPLE WHO KNOW—THE PEOPLE WHO GET THINGS DONE.

Gregg Shorthand Wins

Gregg Writers won FIRST, SECOND, and THIRD places in the International Shorthand Speed Contest at Washington, D. C. Fred H. Gurtler, a Gregg writer, won 1st prize. Mr. Charles Lee Swen, only 17 years old, won second place, and made the second highest record ever made on non-court matter in these contests. The fact that a mere boy, who began the study of shorthand less than eighteen months before the contest, could qualify with such a high record, furnishes absolute proof of the SPEED AND LEGIBILITY of Gregg Shorthand. Mr. Swen made the best record ever made by one of his age and experience. There were four Gregg Writers in this contest, and all qualified. Ten out of fourteen writers of other systems were disqualified for inaccuracy or failed completely in their attempt to transcribe their notes.

Gregg Shorthand is a natural and scientific system of shorthand. It is based on long-hand, and you can improve your longhand while learning to write Gregg Shorthand.

Shaded Characters are abolished.

Position writing abolished.

It has made records for speed and legibility that have been unequalled.

These are not claims. They are solid facts. The last argument against Gregg Shorthand has been swept away. When you go into the business world, you are paid for the amount and quality of your service. It is simply a matter of business and common sense that you should equip yourself with a good shorthand system. A system that has proved itself and stands on its merits.

If you would succeed, you must be trained. You must be well trained, not half trained. The difference between a good and poor training in business is the difference between system and carelessness, between success and failure. The time is coming when you MUST shoulder responsibilities; you MUST bear the burdens that others now bear. LOOK YOUR FUTURE IN THE FACE RIGHT NOW. Make up your mind that you are not going to stay in the rut. Determine that you are going to be something more next year than you are this. Take a Course in our school and enter the great wide field of business. A business career is the greatest now open to the young man or young woman. It is the business men of today that are building railroads, sky-scrapers, bridges and tunnels. They set the wheels of industry moving and furnish the labor that enables the millions to live in comfort. They want the brains, the vitality of youth to help, and to take up the great work where some day they must leave off.

OUR GUARANTEE.

We guarantee you courteous treatment, competent, experienced instructors, pleasant, well-lighted, well-ventilated rooms, modern and complete equipment, and every assistance that is possible for us to give you while you are in school, and after you have finished.

These are things over which we have control, things we CAN guarantee. No school can guarantee you something over which it has no control—and schools do not control positions.

You are cordially invited to visit our school. Write for further information about our courses. Fall term opens Sept. 6. Good opportunities to work for room and board.

GRAND JURY TO PROBE BROWNE TRIAL PERJURY

Judge Brentano Orders Special Panel to Investigate Charges in Bribery Case.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Perjury, subornation of witnesses, theft, and perhaps "jury tampering," all alleged to have cropped out in the second Lou O'Neil Browne bribery trial, will be investigated by a special grand jury which Judge Brentano ordered to convene August 30 at the request of State's Attorney Wayman.

The petition, which was signed by Judge Theodore Brentano to call a special grand jury, keeps the purpose of calling the special body a mystery. There are two matters to be investigated, one of which is wholesale perjury by the defense in the Browne trial, and the other matter, said to be an important one, State's Attorney Wayman will not divulge.

Speculations came fast in the trial. Chief of these was the introduction of testimony by Detective Patrick Kooler, who was discharged from State's Attorney Wayman's private staff and returned to regular police duty, to the effect that he took Beckmeyer out to an orgy during the grand jury investigation into alleged legislative corruption and got the legislator drunk, because he understood that was the wish of Assistant State's Attorney Arnold.

Testimony that was planned to the effect that a resort was visited during the course of this spree was ruled out. Interest was stimulated when Wayman swung from George F. Gloss, a motorman, who was on the stand for the defense, an admission that he altered a memorandum book which he had in court. This witness also testified that Browne and his attorney, P. H. O'Donnell, had visited his (Gloss's) home. He asserted that the purpose of their visit was to secure his wife as a witness.

Gloss was called by the defense to contradict testimony of White and the Yarbrough brothers in an effort to prove that Sidney Yarbrough slept at Gloss's home the night that White and the Yarbroughs testified they were in a room together at a Springfield hotel, when Browne offered White a bribe.

Eggs and the Weather.

Eggs of an abnormal size are being laid in Devonshire, England, and an agricultural expert has given it as his opinion that this is due to changes in the weather. At Seaton a duck has laid an egg weighing half a pound; at Ottery St. Mary a duck's egg was found to contain three yolks; and at South Leigh the largest goose's egg ever recorded in the district has been laid.

Traces of Ancient Animals.

Fossilized remains of a hippopotamus have been found at Barrington, Cambridgeshire, England, where remains of the rhinoceros, bison, lion, hyena and an older variety of elephant than the mammoth have recently been discovered.

The Old Story

You have heard people say, "Had I bought Southern Wisconsin lands twenty-five years ago I would have made a very profitable investment." The same is true of the Texas Panhandle today, and will be even more true three years from today.

Why not join Kelser Bros. & Phillips' excursion to Canyon City, Texas, on Tuesday, Sept. 6th, 1910? Come down with us and look at land that is producing this year 25 bushels of wheat, 50 bushels of oats, 35 bushels of rye, 40 bushels of corn, 45 bushels of kafir corn, per acre, and five cuttings of alfalfa a season.

This land is near railroads, has a good water supply. The average rainfall has been twenty-four inches a year for fifteen years. There has never been an entire crop failure. The winters are mild.

We are offering this land in tracts of any size to suit the purchaser. The price is from $10 to $30 per acre on easy terms.

We are making a special round trip rate of $30 (including sleeper) to Canyon City and return on Tuesday, September 6th.

Come down and take a look at the most productive and fertile land in the world. We will refund railroad fare to all purchasers and to any one who investigates our proposition and does not find it absolutely as above stated.

DON'T HESITATE. If this is what we say it is, it is worth looking into. Ask for booklet, it is free.

200 FARMERS AT COUNTY FARM

Were Well Pleased With Demonstration Given by Prof. C. P. Norgood of Agricultural College.

Over 200 farmers from Rock county and neighboring counties were present at the demonstration given by the agricultural department of the state agricultural college and Madison experimental station and people at the county farm yesterday and all were so well pleased with what they saw and learned that co-operation with the experimental station will be continued next year and the gathering made an annual affair.

Prof. C. P. Norgood gave a very illuminating talk on practical methods of breeding and selection of seed. He pointed out that in order to obtain such an excellent stand rich and well drained ground had been chosen and inoculated with bacteria-laden soil. Advice was given that it should be sown on June 1 without a nurse crop at the rate of 25 pounds of seed to the acre and that the land should be plowed and manured the preceding autumn. Emphasis was placed on the necessity of putting the land through a seed-killing process by harrowing it every week from early spring until sowing time.

A field of corn grown from samples of seed obtained from 25 farmers of this county was next exhibited. It was found that the average stand was not more than 75 per cent and that inasmuch as this percentage of loss meant a loss of 10 bushels per acre in the yield, the greatest possible care should be exercised in the choice of seed.

The meeting closed with an hour's talk on corn culture delivered on the asylum lawn.

MANY CONVERTED AT THE MEETINGS

Twenty-Three Accept Christianity as Result of Efforts of Evangelist Wolf of During Past Week.

The meetings at the Army Citadel have been well attended this week with interested audiences night by night. Each evening marks an increase in attendance and interest. The people are taking Evangelist Wolfe into their confidence and listen eagerly to every message whether in song or sermon. The efforts being put forth are very encouraging. Twenty-three have been converted since the meetings began. The work is so thorough that Staff Captain Wolfe has received many expressions of appreciation for his untiring efforts for the salvation of the lost and the betterment of our city. A great time is being had in the week-end meetings. Captain and Mrs. Fleming will be delighted to have their many friends attend and participate in these glorious meetings that are now interesting the different classes of people who do not attend the churches.

PAVING BLOCKS TO BE HERE IN WEEK

Will be Furnished by Brazil, Ind., Kline-Asphalt-Macadam Work Started on Sinclair Street.

Mayor Carr, members of the high-way committee, City Eng. Korch, and Mr. Graham of the Grand, Graham contracting firm had a heart to heart conference Thursday evening regarding the S. Main St. paving situation. His Honor insisting that paving blocks be secured somewhere if the Portland cement at this time was unable to furnish them, and work commenced at once. It was learned that the Portland people were still back on their orders and as yet unprepared to ship the blocks in the requisite quantity, and the city officials finally gave instructions to Mr. Graham to open negotiations with a brick concern at Brazil, Indiana. Word has since been received that the blocks can be shipped from Brazil at once and the work of getting the thoroughfare in readiness will start next week.

Asphalt-Macadam Work. Work of laying asphalt-macadam on Sinclair street was commenced just south of Court street intersection this morning. The street of asphalt submitted by the bidders and examined by a Chicago expert, the Sisco variety tested out the best and is being used in the construction work.

Before the Jackson street contract can be let two samples of asphalt submitted by the bidders will have to undergo a test similar to the one that has just been mentioned, as the bidders specified different brands from those proposed for Sinclair street.

DAUGHTER OF COL. M'HENRY IS DEAD

Miss Lorena McHenry, Well Known in this City, Passed Away in Chicago Hospital Yesterday.

Miss Lorena McHenry, formerly of this city, and a daughter of the late Col. McHenry, who was a prominent attorney and well known citizen here many years ago, passed away yesterday morning at 2:30 in St. Luke's hospital, Chicago. Miss McHenry was born in this city, one of a family of three girls. After her father's death, her mother moved to Kenosha, and the young ladies received their education in Kenosha. She then came to Chicago, where she was working as a trained nurse and was working as such in Chicago when taken sick. Of the sisters, only one, Charlotte, who is married and resides in Chicago, is living, the other, Lillian, having died a few years ago. Miss McHenry has a host of friends in this city. The remains will be brought here and funeral services will be held in the chapel at Oak Hill at 12:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Archdeacon Henry Willmann officiating.

HEAD OF PURINGTON BRICK CONCERN HERE IN FRENCH MACHINE

Penetrated Tire Kept C. D. B. Howell of Evanston in Janesville For An Hour This Morning.

C. D. B. Howell of Evanston, head of the Purington brick concern at Galesburg, and party, arrived here from Madison this morning in a 7 H. P. French touring car of the Snaplex make. The party included Rev. Mr. Cochran of Philadelphia, former pastor of the Presbyterian church at Madison, who was on his way to Chicago to deliver a sermon there tomorrow.

When informed that Janesville had been waiting for several months to have his concern deliver paving blocks for South Main street, Mr. Howell was at a loss to understand why the factory had not been filled, now that the factory is running full force again and getting around the open shop and gathering around the coal strike handbills. He promised to deliver the matter his account tomorrow but it will be too late as the order has been countermanded.

Child's Queer Answer.

JANESVILLE AND BELOIT GROCERS TO PICNIC

Big Gathering at Yost's Park Tuesday.

Tuesday, August 30, is to be a gala day for the grocers of this and the Beloit City. Every arrangement has been made for a grand good time.

The committee in charge has made arrangements with several of the various business houses to close their establishments at noon. All the Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Furniture, Hardware, Jewelry and Millinery Stores, Meat Markets, Blacksmith Shops and Food Stores, have agreed to close at the noon hour. All the grocery stores will be closed all day.

In the morning at 8:30 there will be a parade through the main business streets, with music by the Imperial band, all the local grocers participating.

The first cars will leave Interurban station at 9:15. Four cars will be necessary to carry the picnickers at this time. There will be a car every half hour the balance of the day.

Two ball games will furnish amusement in the morning and early afternoon. The morning game will be called at 10:00 o'clock. The afternoon game will be a star attraction between Janesville and Beloit league teams.

Fraser of the Chicago Cubs will hold down the pitcher's box for Janesville. The Beloit battery will consist of two well known players from the White Sox Chicago team. It promises to be an exceptionally good game.

Good, athletic sports, dancing and free vaudeville will offer good amusement throughout the afternoon. There will be dancing in the evening. Prizes will be awarded to the three prettiest babies on the grounds and there will be a prize for the greatest pig chase.

Over $500 has been subscribed for prizes for the different games and sports of which there are over 500.

Lunch and hot coffee will be served on the grounds. Arrangements have been made to accommodate over 7,000 people and the committee in charge extends a hearty invitation to everyone to attend and assures everyone a good time.

The Ticklemouse

—and his Sleepyland Adventures

By Roy Rutherford Bailey with Davy and Dorfy

The Mouse and the Mummy

MR. TICKLEMOUSE, what's a mummy?" It was Dorfy's first question when the merry mice awakened her last night.

"A mummy, chickabiddy, is a body that has been wrapped and dried so it will keep many years. Why, child?" "Professor Peabody's got one at his house. It came in a box from New York. His hired girl says it used to be—oh, thousands of years ago—eh?"

"And you don't believe it? Just lead me to the professor's house, chilluns, and we'll see!" The twins hung back so when they reached the Peabody home that the Ticklemouse couldn't get them inside till he had changed them into tickle-mice—then they went readily enough. They found the strange, dull brown mummy-case standing upright in the corner of the professor's library. Two brown eyes looked at them in the dim light, and the Dorfy-mouse jumped back in fear.

"He's looking right at me!" she squeaked to Willy. "Wishing-mouse Willy only laughed. "These aren't real eyes," he said. "They're just on the cover—the real ones are inside, all wrapped up."

The Ticklemouse lifted the lid of the case and looked inside. The others watched him lift the heavy mummy forward and start to undo the wrappings.

One slender brown arm was unwrapped when it spun round and hit him a tap on the head. He jumped as if he had been shot.

"Help me, quick, before it's wide awake!" he cried. Forgetting their fear, the twyn-mice and Willy hastened to help him unwrap the other arm, then the long, bony trunk and legs. By the time the dusty wrappings were laid aside, the mummy was yawning and stretching his arms above his head. "Suffering Egypt, what a sleep!" His voice was deep and very very husky. "Hello, friends—who awakened you?"

"We're not mummies—we're tickle-mice," said the mouse Davy, politely. "Did you go to sleep in New York, mister?"

"In New York—ho, ho!" laughed the husky voice. "No, in the valley of the Nile. You just crawl in here with me and let your friends wrap us up again, and I'll take you there tomorrow night. Oh, don't be afraid, now—I'll let nothing harm you."

Before Davy knew what to say, the Ticklemouse had nodded and tucked him in. "Sleep there till tomorrow night, my boy, and I'll tickle Teddy bear into a Davy while you're gone, so your folks won't worry." And before the Davymouse, frightened now, could so much as squeak, "Let me out!" the dusty cloth closed over his head and he fell into a dreamless sleep.

Human-Headed Rooster.

A man in Boston who handles "freaks" for sideshows and whose duty it is to weed out the false freaks, states that he is annoyed more frequently by men who offer to sell him human-headed roosters than by any other class of vendors.

It seems that human-headed roosters have been on the market ever since the Civil war. They are not difficult to make, a mask which does not interfere with the roosters of the hen's protector being firmly cemented to the upper bill of the bird. All that is then needed is a purchaser and an open-faced audience. It may be put down that the human-headed rooster is a fraud.

Oregon Man's Insect Catcher.

In the country all sorts of homely devices are used to catch the bugs and kill them, and an Oregon man, who probably had his apple orchard overrun by some destructive species, patented a trap for the pests. A barrel has pieces cut out of the upper portion and is half filled with rotten or bruised apples or some other odoriferous fruit. On top of the barrel is placed a pan partially filled with water, oil or some poisonous liquid. From the apex of a tripod that keeps the basin from falling off the barrel hangs a lantern. In the daytime the insects will be attracted by the odor of the fruit, and in flying up to feast many of them are likely to fly into the water. At night the lantern is lighted and bugs will come from afar to flutter against it and meet their death in the liquid below.—Chicago Tribune.

Ruling Passion.

"The thermometer was a hundred at noon yesterday," said the man who watches the weather. "To-day it is down to 98." "My!" rejoined his wife, absentmindedly. "Isn't that a bargain?"

"If You Can't See Well See Scholler"

Hundreds of people are suffering from different troubles and never dream their eyes are the cause of it. Eyestrain causes more nervous trouble than any other known cause. We know the dangers that follow in the wake of defective eyes and strained vision. My knowledge of the eye and practical experience in the FITTING OF GLASSES is at your service. I examine your eyes with the Ophthalmoscope and in so doing can discover any diseased condition of the eyes or defect in vision, and prescribe glasses or give advice accordingly. #### Slaves of the Word "It."

Grover Cleveland once declared that he was an optimist, but not an "itist." "An itist," said Mr. Cleveland, "is a person who is a slave to the little word 'it,' whereas an optimist hopes for the best in a sane manner. The itist is never quite sane. I once knew an itist who was lost in Maine woods with a companion on a hunting expedition. As night came on they made camp, but, although they were hungry, they had shot no game and had nothing to eat. With a perfectly serious face this fellow looked at his companion and said: 'If we only had some ham, we'd have ham and eggs. If we only had some eggs!'"

Called Down.

Knicker—"My forbears came over in the Mayflower." Bocker—"I suppose they were perfectly safe, as there was no wireless then."

HAD HEARD PAPA SAY IT.

The School Teacher—Willie, can you tell me the meaning of leisure? The Bright Scholar—It's the place where married people repent.

This Week, Seven More Sick and Suffering Men and Women Started On Their Way to Health and Happiness Again

They, like many others in Janesville and Rock county had given up hope, had tried doctors, surgeons, specialists as they supposed was required, and had failed to get a cure. Yet this new, wonderful science of Chiropractic will make them well in just a short time. Because Chiropractic Adjustments are new to you don't be skeptical. The science of Chiropractic has been practiced since 1895. Thousands have been made well who had given up hope. Hospitals all over the country are adopting Chiropractic. Medicine is being given less and less each year. Doctors who thought they knew how to cure people with medicine, who failed and who saw them recover by chiropractic adjustments, have given up medicine entirely and have been won over to this grand, new science of chiropractic, which REMOVES THE CAUSE of the disease, and which is not like medicine, that treats the symptoms and the pocket book only. You can be made well if you will come to us—no matter how difficult your case may be; no matter what you have tried; we say, come to us and be made well. Seven more helpless, sick people are happy today because they came to us. You who suffer, suffer from your own choice. From the thousands of records of cases in hospitals these facts have been gathered. There is hardly a recognized form of disease which has not been completely and permanently removed by chiropractic adjustments. The following list includes only the most prominent and important diseases. After the name of the disease, the minimum and maximum length of time that adjustments were found to be necessary in different cases is given:

J. N. PUDDICOMBE
Graduate Chiropractor.

Asthma—1 day to 2 months.
Appendicitis—When acute, not over 1 to 4 days.
Bronchitis—From 1 day in acute to 2 or 3 months in chronic cases.
Cancer—As many days as are necessary to allow the tumor to be absorbed, or, if open, to heal and form a firm cicatrix. A period of several months is usually required for this work to be accomplished.
Cataract—3 to 6 months. Removing the cause of the growth permits natural absorption to gradually occur with restoration of sight.
Catarrh of the nose and throat—From a few weeks to as many months. Often the tissues return to a normal condition in a remarkably short space of time.
Diabetes—From 1 to 3 months. No restriction of diet is necessary. Functional power is soon restored to the kidneys and then their secretions cannot long remain abnormal.
Dropsy—From 1 day to several weeks. Dropsy becomes a thing of the past when the urine is excreted in proper quantities. Adjustments restore normal activity of the kidneys; hence as soon as offending subluxation is permanently adjusted, health is re-established.
Diphtheria—1 to 3 days.
Deafness—From 1 day to 2 months.
Epilepsy—From 1 to 6 months. If adjustments are given immediately after the fit, no dull headaches will be experienced.
Eczema—From a few days to as many months.
Fever—All fevers, including Diphtheria, Typhoid, etc., 1 to 2 adjustments.
Goitre—From 2 weeks to 4 months. Sometimes absorption takes place so rapidly as to be noticeable from day to day.
Gall Stones—From a few days to several weeks. Adjustments cause the stones to be disintegrated and dissolved. Hence a few days' time is frequently sufficient to accomplish a permanent cure.
Gout—A few days. Pain is often immediately relieved after one adjustment.
Hay Fever—A few days or weeks, either before or after the period of infection, sufficient.
Heart Disease—In any form, a few weeks or months.
Hernia—2 to 4 months. The subluxation may be permanently corrected in a few weeks, but further time is required to reduce the enlarged and patulous opening to its normal size, and enable the surrounding tissues to acquire their normal degree of tonicity and resistance.
Insanity—From one day to several months. The length of time depends more upon the severity and duration of the affection than upon its character.
Jaundice—1 to 2 months.
Lumbago—1 day to 2 months. Permanent relief in many cases follows one adjustment less than half minute.
Neuralgia—The same time that is required for lumbago.
Neuritis, acute—The same that is necessary for neuralgia. In the chronic form, 2 weeks to 3 or 4 months.

Paralysis—From 1 day in acute cases to several months in those which are chronic.
Peritonitis—2 to 4 days.
Pneumonia—1 to 3 days.
Prolapsus of Stomach or Uterus—From several days to as many months, depending on how much the vertebrae may be abnormal in position, and the time required to secure their normal relation.
Rheumatism—Acute cases, 1 to 4 days; others 1 to 2 months.
Sciatica—The same that is required for rheumatism.
Smallpox—1 to 4 days.
St. Vitus Dance—From 1 week to 2 or 3 months, according to the severity of the case and the age of the patient.

The rapidity with which recovery often occurs as a result of expert Chiropractic adjustments seems to those without experience almost incredible. There are authentic records of many cases of severe, painful and obstinate form after a single adjustment.

The data given above represents the averages made up from reports of Chiropractors in various fields of work. There is another feature of Chiropractic fully as interesting as any that has before been mentioned by me. This is its hygienic or prophylactic influence. The real mission of the physician is to prevent rather than to cure disease. This being the case, if one's system were always kept in proper normal condition by expert Chiropractic adjustments, all illness would be prevented. As by paying regular visits to your dentist, your teeth are kept in good condition, by having all decay promptly treated, so by availing oneself of our services at stated intervals, and especially after any jars, falls or injuries or when one is not feeling perfectly well, not only would much pain and suffering be avoided, but much loss both of time and money would be saved.

Why be sick, when all can be made well? Why suffer at all when you can be made strong and robust? The Chiropractor removes the CAUSE OF THE DISEASE, drugs merely treat symptoms. People don't get sick from nothing. THERE IS A CAUSE. The chiropractor locates the cause and then removes it. You get well. Nature reasserts itself. Come to our office and learn some of the old truths. Come and learn how to be made well. It costs nothing to talk with us.

TALKS OF VIRTUES OF WEST

The pioneers and their immediate successors won victory only by proving that they possessed the great, material qualities which lie at the foundation of National greatness. They are certainly men of meaning, men of intellectual cultivation and lacking mental and moral robitonism; they are men who comprehend fully the American life, and especially the life of the American community. They are men who have been able to rise above the narrowness of the pioneer spirit, and to win out gentler or better. Gentia is a virtue thing for a nation, but character is a finer thing, and though beauty is good, strength is an even greater good. The nation has to have made this. The men of the west, and especially the men who have turned it into a continent of commonwealth, have possessed in the highest degree the great virtue of strength, courage, energy, and undaunted and unwavering resolution. Their typical leaders, men of the west, and especially through the most exceptional, was the most typical—have possessed keen intelligence, a character not merely strong but lofty, a character exalted by the fact that great power was necessary to the life of the first pioneers. In this use the great power for the common good, for the advancement of mankind in places; and the more complex life today calls for a greater variety of qualities than were needed on the frontier. There is need at present to encourage the development of new abilities which can be brought to bear upon the only life of the future. The new qualities are not new; but they are new qualities, only supplement, and never supplant, the old, homely virtues; the new for the old.

I. C. GRAFT TRIAL STARTED

HARRIMAN, TAYLOR AND EWING CASES ARE OPENED BEFORE BRUGGEMEYER.

RAWN ORDERED CARS FARMED

Harahan's Clerk Causes Sensation When He Links Former Monon Chief With Graft Cases—Defendants Refused Change of Venue.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—The trial of the Illinois Central railroad $1,500,000 graft case was started when the preliminary examination of Frank B. Harriman, former general manager; John M. Taylor, former general storekeeper, and Charles L. Ewing, former general superintendent of the railroad, was begun before Municipal Judge Matheis Bruggemeyer. The sensation of the first session was the introduction of the name of Ira G. Rawn, late president of the Monon system, as responsible for car repair farming on the Illinois Central when he was an official of that road.

The charge was made by E. C. Cowgill, chief clerk for President Harahan of the Illinois Central road.

Rawn Orders Cars Farmed. Witness Cowgill testified he knew the late Mr. Rawn when he was vice-president of the Illinois Central railroad and that at that time Mr. Rawn had charge of the construction and operating departments. He also swore that he knew cars had been farmed out by the Illinois Central road for repairs between 1906 and 1909. The practice stopped, he said, in December of 1909.

"By whose orders were such cars farmed out?" was a question which caused vigorous protests from the lawyers for the defense. Mr. Cowgill was instructed by the court to answer. He said:

"I once had a conversation with Mr. Rawn in which he ordered cars farmed out."

An outline of charges the prosecution expects to prove in the case against John M. Taylor, specifically, and against Frank B. Harriman and Charles L. Ewing, in general, was presented to the court following the interrogating of Theophilus Reuter, formerly a director in the Osterman Manufacturing company, which repaired cars for the Illinois Central railroad.

During the examination of Reuter, he told of being a director of the Osterman Manufacturing company and owner of 11,000 shares of stock in the company. He said he was compelled to resign by the other directors in the company in the year 1907 to make room for John M. Taylor, then storekeeper for the Illinois Central. At the time of his being ousted from the directorate of the company, he said, he had made revelations to certain officers of the Illinois Central company concerning repair bills for cars, but he said little heed was paid to his complaints.

The Illinois Central railroad was victorious in the opening round of its prosecution when Municipal Judge Bruggemeyer refused the defendants a change of venue or a bill of particulars.

BUYS CHICAGO GREAT WESTERN.

Northern Pacific Reported to Have Obtained Desired Entry Here.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 27.—(Railroad circles were stirred by a rumor that the Northern Pacific railroad had purchased the Chicago Great Western and that the formal transfer would be made September 1. In connection with the rumor came word that the unusual activity displayed in the past year in construction and repair work that has placed the Great Western in excellent condition, has been suspended pending the transfer.

The Northern Pacific thus would have its own line to Chicago. In order to obtain a Chicago connection it is said previously negotiations had been entered into with the Burlington for the Northern Pacific to run its trains into Chicago over its tracks. At the same time the Great Northern was dickering with the Great Western for a similar concession. The Great Northern now operates over the Burlington.

RUSSIA WILL ADMIT STRAUS.

Ambassador Is Forced to Get Permit to Visit St. Petersburg.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—A dispatch to the Tageblatt from St. Petersburg states that the Russian ministry of the interior has published an order giving Oscar S. Straus, the American ambassador to Turkey, permission to visit St. Petersburg. The order is as follows:

"The ministry of the interior permits the American ambassador to Constantinople, Oscar S. Straus, who belongs to the Jewish confession, to visit St. Petersburg with his family."

This order is regarded as a striking illustration of the rigor with which the anti-Jewish regulations are being enforced.

Indianapolis, Aug. 27.—Joseph Wagoner of Santa Cruz, Cal., for eight years a convict in the California state prison at San Quentin, and later secretary for the Society for the Friendless, dropped dead here in the terminal station while waiting for a car to take him to a friend near Greenwood, who would have given him a home for the remainder of his life.

The Master Stroke in Motor Car Designing

The success of the Overland is credited entirely to the master engineers who designed it. They had as a guide all that others had done. But it is what they added which has made this car the masterpiece of mechanism. It is their simplified construction, their marvelous engine, their method of control which have brought the Overland to this envied place.

ALL THE BEST IDEAS.

Before the Overland was made, motor car engineering had reached a high state of development. Time had already told which features were best for almost every part of the car. And the designers of the Overland, knowing these facts, combined the best ideas developed.

But they made a new engine, and it happened to solve the most serious of motor problems. It is quiet and powerful. It is free from complexity. The very best noise can always keep going. In one of our tests, employing three shifts of men, we ran it 7,000 miles without stopping. And many an owner has run it up to 10,000 miles without even cleaning a spark plug.

Seemingly nothing can faze it. This faithful engine has done more than all else to bring Overland cars to the top.

THE SIMPLIFIED CAR

The next greatest step was to reduce the number of parts. In one part, for instance, they invented one piece which takes the place of 47. And every part saved reduces the risk of trouble.

They devised the pedal control found in three of the Overland models. Push one pedal forward to go ahead and backward to reverse. Push another pedal forward to get on high speed. The hands have nothing to do but steer.

As a result, a child can master the car in ten minutes. Any member of the family can run it.

The car is easy to care for, and the cost of upkeep is slight. For the man who runs his own car, and who seeks for economy, the Overland has every advantage.

The Simplest to Learn, Easiest to Read, Fastest to Write

Chartier Shorthand

VINCENT W. NORTH.

This system is now in use in over 400 of the leading Business Colleges of the United States. Its adoption by every school is prevented simply from a supply of competent teachers. It is bound to eventually drive other systems out of existence. All other systems contain hundreds of rules, exceptions, word-signs and contractions.

Here Are a Few of the Characteristics of Chartier Shorthand

- 1.—It consists of the alphabet and ten simple rules.
- 2.—It has no contractions, no exceptions, no omission of words or consonants, no complicated outlines, only 65 word-signs.
- 3.—Can be learned in half the time under S. W. B. C. instructors, that it takes to acquire other systems.
- 4.—It can be read like print.
- 5.—It has greater brevity, simplicity, rapidity and legibility than any other system of shorthand ever devised.

Hitherto the study of Shorthand was looked upon as a difficult study, intended to be undertaken only by the learned and highly educated, and then to be acquired only after many months of hard, persevering study. That day is gone by and today Shorthand—if you study the SPENCERIAN CHARTIER SYSTEM—can be learned by any one of average intelligence in one-quarter the time required to learn either the Gregg or Pitman systems. We have used these systems and know their defects. Besides, Chartier can be written faster and read with much greater ease. We have had many students writing over 100 words a minute on NEW matter after 7 and 8 weeks of study.

W. W. DALE, President.

On Account of the Short Time Needed to Learn Shorthand

Our students have more time to acquire a mastery of Typewriting, Spelling, Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Office Practice, the necessary requisites to make a good Stenographer. This is why our stenographers are in demand by the BEST FIRMS at the BEST SALARIES. Read this young man's experience with Chartier Shorthand.

CALVIN INVESTMENT CO. (Incorporated)

Miles City, Montana, Dec. 18, 1909.

Three years ago I graduated from your business college, having completed a course in bookkeeping, Chartier Shorthand and typewriting. After a year's experience in an office I came to Montana, and have for the past two years had charge of the office work and correspondence of the Calvin Investment Co., one of the largest real estate firms in the state. I consider the Chartier system of shorthand by long odds the best system in use, because in the matter of speed and accuracy I find that one can easily compete with old and experienced stenographers who use Pitman and Gregg Shorthand. Several months ago I received the appointment of court stenographer in competition with several competent men, but was disbarred from serving on account of my age. After three years experience in office work and meeting many experts, I can unhesitatingly endorse your methods and system for teaching shorthand and typewriting. I would recommend any young man or woman desirous of entering this field to adopt the Chartier system of shorthand and take a course in your school. Respectfully,

VINCENT W. NORTH.

Mr. North is now Secy. Treas. of the above concern.

By RUTH CAMERON.

THE WORLD is so full of a number of things, I am sure we should all be as happy as kings. But one of the chief reasons that we aren't, I think, is that we just don't realize that we own these things. Just don't beat ourselves to take possession of our kingdoms.

For instance, I don't know just where you live, but I do know that it is unlikely that you live at any place so city bound that there is not some beautiful country or woods spot not more than half an hour and ten cents away from your home. More likely much nearer.

And how often do you go there and spend a few hours basking your lungs with the fresh air and your soul with the peace that are to be found in such spots? You wish you might take your children into the country for the summer, as your neighbor does, and often bewail that that luxury is not within your power to bring to your darlings, but how often do you give them that luxury that is within your reach—a day in the country?

And by a day in the country I don't mean a day at some popular picnic ground, where there are flying horses, and peanut stands, and all that sort of thing. I mean a day in the real country. Doubtless the youngsters will enjoy the other kind of excursion quite as much and they ought to have that, too, occasionally, but don't let it crowd out the real country day.

Besides the immediate advantage to their health, you will also be giving your children a lifelong source of pleasure if you instill into them a love for the outdoor world.

Teach them, or perhaps I should say learn with them, to listen for and to distinguish some of the bird calls, and to take an interest in the different varieties of flowers. I don't mean necessarily the minute botanical interest that is not content until it pulls the flower apart into cells and cells and classifies it into family and genus. I simply mean the friendly interest that knows them by all their nicknames and studies to learn just when to expect them and where they like best to grow.

Of course you can't cultivate an interest like that by going once or twice a year into the woods.

But what's to prevent your going once or twice a week? Household chores? If I had a house and five children to look after I wouldn't talk such nonsense.

I wonder if a house couldn't stay by itself quite comfortably occasionally, and if there isn't more than one way to look after five children.

Once upon a time there was a woman who was too much "embarrassed about much serving" to listen to the wonderful words of her very great guest.

And there was another woman who cared more to listen to this inspired guest than she did that everything in the house be immaculate and the food perfectly cooked and served just so.

And we were told that this woman chose "that good part which shall not be taken away from her."

Are you sure that in preferring to have your table and house and children's wardrobe just so to being a fellow student with your children for an occasional day in God's great school room, you're choosing "that good part"?

HELPS TO HAPPINESS.

By MARY KESSEL.

When the world gets a spasm of virtue the police go about closing cheap shows and shutting up the cheap dance halls and decent theaters. They do not stop to think that perhaps it is well to clean the atmosphere a little higher up at the same time.

I agree that the cheap and rowdy dance halls must go. They are a menace to the morals of the young people of the nation, but they should be replaced by cleaner and better places for this beloved amusement of the young. It is not the dance that is wrong, but the conditions under which the dance is enjoyed that makes the evil. This is being recognized in the larger cities, but we are slow to take up the work. People give to missions when they should give to the amusement fund and see that clean amusements and pleasures are offered for the ones they desire to help.

A walk over a desert waste soon fatigues, but the path through green fields and pleasant valleys and along splendid hills will beguile one for miles without a thought of rest.

It is the same with the path upward towards the greatest good. It must be pleasant if we would induce the people to walk the way. We may say that a future that is worth having is worth working for. That is true, but it is one thing to teach and believe a certain thing and another to make the person with whom we labor desire to attain that thing. We can give reasons, but we cannot create intense desire. Therefore it is to stimulate desire for better and cleaner lives that we must work. We may criticize the laborer for spending his money for crude joys. But—do we offer any that will take the place of these moments of relaxation?

People are all alike in their craving for happiness. They all grow dull and stupid under the heavy round of labor. It makes no difference whether the clay of which they are made is coarse or fine; they must be some happy, care-free hours or the life goes to pieces and we find dissolutions of the lowest and most degrading character indulged in by both classes.

If we would make the cheap shows cleaner and more dignified the fun and humor we would be doing as great a work as any done by an evangelist. It is a task to damn a theater-loving people who countenance the sordid and vile plays so often played in the expensive houses. We imagine we can take the fine lessons without being coming touched by the glories of the mire in which we are dragged to see it. The man or woman who can go into the grossest and low down of "salvation Nell" and feel that it is a great lesson and all the rest of the sort by which we gloss over the fact that we are unwisely when offered at a dollar and a half a seat and presented by an expensive star and company, may just as well keep silent about the flashy melodrama and obscene jokes in the cheap vaudeville. The jokes do not pretend to be anything else but coarse, while in such plays as the one quoted, and a score more that have been popular in the best houses, there is a cheap pretense of a "great lesson."

We will be doing a great work when we provide clean fun for the "masses," but we are not likely to do that as long as the "classics" prefer to dig in the same black heap for pleasure. It takes a sane and sensible view of life and the necessities to do effective work. The great trouble with the heaven we offer the lump of ignorance is, too often, that it is visionary. We know so well what is good that we feel that

It is plain to eyes dulled by care and blinded by ignorance.

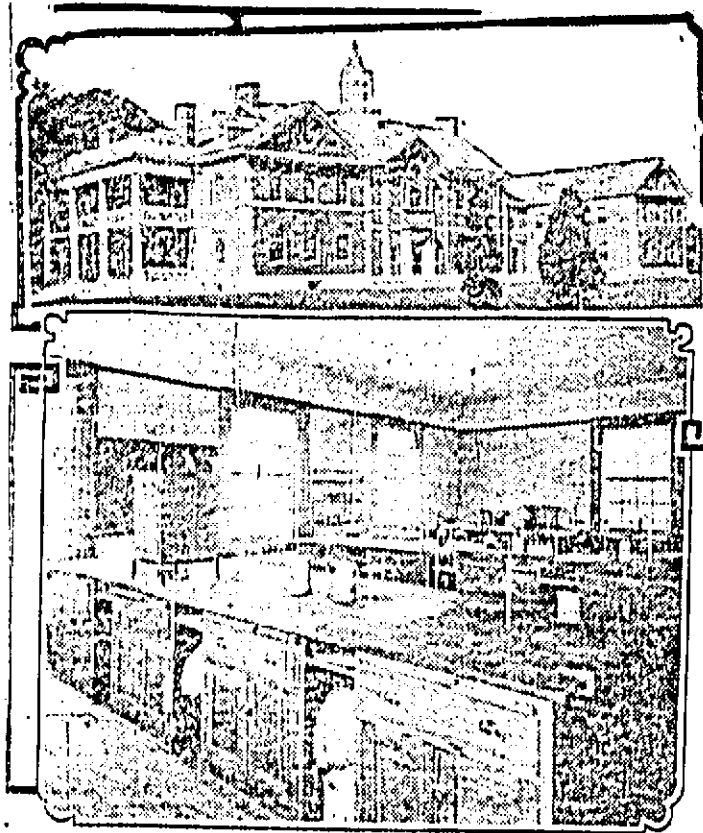

To understand it is to rank with the gods—but only by understanding and sympathy may we hope for better things. Make the way happy and pleasant if you would revolutionize the slums of your town or village. Amuse the young people cleanly if you would keep them out of mischief—it is a truth that must go deep if we succeed in making the world better.

Woman is a miracle of divine contradictions.—Anonymous.

GODDESS OF LUCK NO LONGER REIGNS IN KITCHEN—COOKING NOW A SCIENCE.

Department
The goddess of kitchen luck haphazardly strayed into a domestic science laboratory one day and fell into a test tube. There wasn't enough of her left for a satisfactory meal; besides everyone in the laboratory was too busy to hold one. Therefore they washed out her remains with sulphuric acid and a few sad tears, and re-marked solemnly "Kitchens need less luck, and all Olympus will be for cents, and went on with their work. Since then luck has played no part in kitchen failures; failures mean refusal to take domestic science into partnership.

As a result domestic science colleges are being established all over this land. Professor Isabelle Bevier, the head of the domestic science department of the University of Illinois, has a national reputation for work in this field. She has written much and raised the Illinois school to its present high grade of efficiency. "There is at work all the time in the domestic science laboratory of this college a research assistant, Miss Nellie Goldsworthy, Ph. D., who patiently sponges from science her secrets of baked pans and stoves. Let me tell you a few of the things she has found out in connection with bread and jelly.

That quick process bread that you can have out of the pans four and a half hours from the time you begin it, contains less nitrogen than the long process bread to which you give twelve or thirteen hours for the first rising in the ordinary room temperature is a good thing to have within a family. It may help the pay envelope to grow pretty. Bread baked in covered pans has a crust better in appearance and more tender to the knife than when baked in open pans.

Have you ever wondered why fruit juices "jell"? It is because of two elements, acid and pectin. Now some juices contain acid, but no pectin. Pineapple and rhubarb and the pulp of lemon and oranges are among these. But they can, by adding pectin, be induced to yield excellent jelly. Locating pectin was serious work, but it was finally found that the white of lemon or orange, the part between the yellow outer covering and the pulp, was rich in pectin. The thin yellow pulp must be completely removed because of its bitter taste. Then if the white be put through a meat chopper, soaked in water over night and boiled for several hours, the resulting extract will furnish pectin for such fruit juices as pears have created without it.

Have you ever had your jelly, especially if made of grapes, with all over the dish with about as much "sit up" as to much New Orleans molasses? The difficulty was, probably, that in your zeal you cooked it too long. Now over cooking fruit juices containing acid and pectin results in the complete ruin of the pectin.

This will give an idea of the practical nature of the work done. The long hours of toil, of careful research and often disappointment that these results have meant, are not even hinted at. "We taste the spices of Arabia yet never feel the burning sun that brought them forth." And for every secret that nature has yet yielded some brain has burned.

WILLIE WISE.

OFFICIAL NOTICE
IMPROVEMENT NOTICE
Published by the authority of the Common Council of the City of Janesville, City of the City Clerk.
Janesville, Wis., Aug. 23, 1910.
Notice is hereby given that a contract has been made for the improvement of the street from the northern side of Main street to the southern side of Main street, and the laying of gutters and other improvements, and that the expense of said improvement, chargeable to the land owners, has been determined as to each parcel of land, and a statement of the same is on file with city clerk.
It is proposed to issue bonds chargeable only to the real estate to be improved, and such bonds will be issued and placed all of said assessments, except in cases where the owner of the property has the city clerk, within thirty days after the date hereof, a written notice that they elect to pay the special assessments of a part thereof on their property, describing the same on presentation of the certificate.
R. M. CUMMINS, City Clerk.

Machines of Peril.
"Do you think airplanes could be used effectively in warfare?" "They might," replied the skeptical person; "if we could provide the airplanes and induce the enemy to go up in them."

HUNTERS PREPARE FOR FALL HUNT

GAME REPORTED PLENTIFUL IN MANY LOCALITIES IN STATE.

SEASON OPENS SEPT. FIRST

Janesville Sportmen Get Down Their Equipment and Plan For Outings in the Woods and on Lakes.

With the approach of the fall hunting season, which opens right after the primary election, Madison sportsmen are beginning to look about for attractive game sections in which to spend the brief trips they are permitted to take. Dealers in sporting goods and local hardware merchants have already begun to appreciate the approaching open season, and are selling an unusually large amount of high grade lubricating oils for towing places.

County Clerk Lee has been busy handing out the permits to hunt at so much per acre and indications are that there will be more hunters this year in the vicinity of Rock county than ever before. Already the Janesville sportmen have been casting affectionate glances at their rifles and shot guns and thinking of their annual outings into the wilds in search of big and small game. Rock county hunters however are deluged with the sport of shooting the prairie chicken, quail and pheasant. Swans also are on the protected lists while geese and brant belong to the open class after September 10th. Plover also are in this same list.

Some of the requirements of the law are relative to bag limits that might be well to remember. Grouse, woodcock or prairie chickens are limited to ten. The same is true to geese or brant. Fifteen partridges can be shot, wild duck, mallard, plover, rail or rice hen up to the number of twenty-five and a mixed bag of game birds can contain thirty. Only one deer can be shot. It is also unlawful to shoot aquatic fowl after sunset but it is lawful to shoot the same birds one hour before sunrise.
Game reports are extremely conflicting, and the hunters have not yet been able to arrive at a definite conclusion concerning the amount of game to be had this year. The local hunters, however, are reading the signs of dry weather with satisfaction, and are preparing for the biggest success in several seasons. An enthusiast is authority for the statement that ducks never were more plentiful on the northern lakes and rivers than they are this season.
The low water during the past summer has allowed the wild rice to grow in abundance and this should make the hunting good at Koshkonong and along the upper reaches of the river. Some wild geese have also been seen at the lake but not many.

In many places hay has been cut off the marshes, and the lack of water has made them high and dry. This, it may be seen, has spoiled a great many of the hiding haunts of the duck. Deep water will be a natural substitute for a refuge this year, and with these conditions prevailing hunting should be in its prime. Highlights are also reported to be plentiful.
Other reports, however, are to the effect that hunters will be disappointed on account of the scarcity of game this year. Many forest and prairie fires, it is said, have destroyed considerable, and most of the game, including deer, have been driven closer up to the towns and villages. In spite of these reports, the game warden's office holds that game is quite plentiful in many parts of the state.

The open season for ducks begins September 1, less than two weeks away. This includes ducks of every variety, even the American eel and mudhen. Duck shooting may be continued until January 1, the season again being closed at that time.

The season for most upland and aquatic fowl, however, does not open until September 10. This class includes grouse, partridge, plover, prairie chickens and hens, woodcock, brant and geese. Grouse and prairie chickens may be shot from September 10 to October 1; partridge, plover and woodcock until December 1. The season for geese and brant is somewhat longer, being open until May 1.
Prairie chickens are protected in certain counties, and pheasants and quail are closed everywhere until 1915. It is unlawful to kill swan at any time.
The season for deer is as generally known. Includes the last 20 days of November, from the 10th to the 30th.
From November 15 to March 15, the fisher, martin, mink and muskrat may be killed. Beaver and fawn in spot-ed coat are protected. The other, however, may be shot from September 15 until March 1.

TRAINING SCHOOL TO COMMENCE WORK

Green County School For Teachers Will Open For Second Year of Work on Sept. 6.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Montrose, Wis., August 27.—The Green County Training School opens here for the second year's work on September 6. The school has been removed from Broadhead to this city and begins work in the old high school building. The school will open with a much larger attendance than last year and there is every reason to believe that this year will prove much more successful. The building has been remodeled and everything possible done for the convenience of the scholars. To the equipment has been added 200 volumes for reference work.

The course of study requires two years though students who have completed two years of high school need attend but one year, which greatly qualifies them as teachers in Wisconsin schools. Those students who have completed the eighth grade will be admitted to the training school without examination. This also applies to scholars holding common school diplomas.
A. C. Howe,
A. C. Howe, of Lena, brother of John Howe, of this city, died at his home at Lena after a two months' illness from tuberculosis. He was 50 years of age and leaves besides his wife, two sons and two daughters. Some years ago he was identified in the piano business with Geo. W. Spiegel and later established himself in the same business in Lena. The funeral will be held at his home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. H. P. Burns, of this city.

Brief Local News.

Mrs. R. A. Etter has gone to Superior to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Asa M. Royce. Mrs. J. W.
McGillivray, who has been visiting her mother returned to her home at Black River Falls. Mrs. Etter may return here sometime later to reside.

Robert Crow and Will Crow have returned from a trip to Arkansas, S. D.
They report the crops in that part of Dakota, there being a good yield of wheat and prospects for a fine crop of flax and corn.

Miss Brightie Conditine is here from Chicago, the guest of Mrs.
Louise Wolcott. Miss Conditine has been reengaged to teach in the domestic science department of the schools at Great Falls, Mont., the coming year.

Miss Bertha Bennett has gone to Albion, Wis., for a visit previous to returning to Hurley, where she will begin the school year teaching on September 5.

Miss Louise Whitcomb has returned to her home in Albany after a short visit to her cousin, Miss Grace Whitcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Woodie are making a short stay to friends in Culogo.

of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Macomber.

Pigmies of New Guinea.
The news that a fresh race of pig-mies has been discovered in New Guinea, by a British expedition presently exploring the interior, is interesting to ethnologists, since no one expected anything of the kind in that great island. Nobody has yet been able to determine whether the pig-mies of the Aruhini Forest, discovered by Stanley, and before him, by Herodotus, are degenerates from the normal type of mankind or whether they are merely a primitive type that has pro-liferated in its original form. The huge island which is the pigmies' home, contains, perhaps, more unexplored territory in proportion to its size than any other portion of the interior, including, as has already been hinted, survivors of antediluvian creatures.

By one of its lakes a tribe of well-favored men has already been discovered.

THOMSEN OF RACINE WILL BUILD SEWERS

Contract For 5,933 Feet Awarded to Lowest of Three Bidders—G. D.
Cannon Gets Curb and Gutter Work.

Andrew Thomsen of Racine has been awarded the contract, as lowest bidder, for laying an aggregate of 5,933.59 feet of sewer pipe on Prairie avenue, from Hyatt street to a point 425 feet north of the center line of Walker street, on North Bluff street, from Prospect avenue to a point 175 feet north of the center line of South Second street; on Clarence street from Court street to Milwaukee street; on Jackson street from Oakland avenue to Garfield avenue; on Forest Park boulevard; on South Main street district boundary line north to Sharon street; on Carrington street from South Main to Garfield avenue; on Garfield avenue from Carrington to Vista avenue, north from Garfield avenue to Logan street.

The street assessment committee has also awarded to G. D. Cannon, whose bid of 48 cents per foot was the lowest, the contract for curb and gutter work on two streets where property owners did not elect to have the work done of their own volition.
Some of the work will be done on Center avenue and the balance on thoroughfares of the First, Second and Third wards. There were three bids for the sewer contract and four for the curb and gutter work. The committee yesterday inspected some of the bridges that are in need of repairs and will undoubtedly have some recommendations to offer at the next council meeting.

ARREST SUSPECT IN MICHAELIS MURDER

Police Still Probing Mysterious Death of Brother of Dr. W. H. Michaelis of This City.

Robert A. King, a lawyer residing at 6317 Union street, Chicago, is being detained at the Englewood police station on the suspicion that he might know something about the murder of Dr. William P. Michaelis, the dentist who was shot down at Normal Boulvard and West Sixty-first place on the night of Aug. 5 and a brother of Dr.
M. H. Michaelis of this city.

King was taken in custody at the direction of Lieut. Thomas on Thursday evening, when he called at the drug store of E. B. Schlegelinger, 6321 Husted street, Chicago, for a bundle of blood stained clothing which he left there on the night of Aug. 10.
King was formerly in the employ of Attorney Edward R. Litzinger, who dismissed him about a month ago.

King is said to have been drinking and in financial distress since he lost his position with Litzinger. Lieut.
Thomas is working on the holdup theory, but is also interested in the friendship between King and Miss Jennie O'Reilly, at whose house he roomed.

Miss Elizabeth Bredin, the only witness to the murder of Dr. Michaelis, and Miss Sophia Irwin, 507 West Sixty-first street, who saw a strange man loitering about the neighborhood, according to Lieut. Thomas, declared that the general outline of King's form resembled that of the man they saw.

King told the police he never met Dr. Michaelis and Miss O'Reilly, the suspect alleged sweetheart, told the police she had no acquaintance with the slain dentist. Attorney Litzinger told the police he was compelled to dismiss King because of a blunder he had made, but that he believed the man to be thoroughly honest, and said King had numerous occasions to steal money while in his employ.

The Public Debt To Christian Science

W. D. McCrackan, M. A.
(From the Christian Science Sentinel)

All loyal citizens are interested in the preservation of public health, and none more so than Christian Scientists. Perhaps these are even more solicitous about such preservation than most people, because they so thorowly understand the modus operandi of disease in propagating itself in unseen ways unless it be scientifically check-ed and destroyed.

Mrs. Eddy explains that "disease arises, like other mental conditions, from association" (Science and Health, p. 154). The cause, process, and propagation of all disease is mental, therefore the method of mastering it must also be mental. The recognition of this fact will presently dawn upon the minds of medical practitioners, as it has already dawned upon the minds of Christian Science practitioners. In the mean time, as Christian Scientists are at work, healing sin and sickness in themselves and others, they are thereby helping the members of the communities in which they live. The protective and preventive powers of Christian Science are not generally known to the public, but they are in operation, nevertheless, and cannot fail to be appreciated before long.

Did the general public only know the salutary effect which the right thinking of a body of Christian Scientists exerts upon the health of a community, we should hear no more about attempts to interfere with Christian Science practice. Ignorance of the power of right ideas for good can alone account for such misguided attempts. Indeed, who shall adequately repay Christian Scientists for their unseen watch and vigil over a community beet on all sides by dangers which it does not discern and subject to attacks which it does not understand?
One hears a good deal about the contagion of disease, but little about the danger of diseased thinking, or about the healing influence of wholesome, healthful thinking. Yet the latter is more powerful than the former, as good overcomes evil and overtops evil.

Who can measure the beneficent effect upon a body of people trained to believe in a God who sends evil, of one righteous man who knows that God is "of purer eyes than to behold evil"? Who can estimate the result of such courageous protest, based upon Science, against the awful belief that the laws of disease can defy God?
Who can follow in its blessed flight through a community one act of forgiveness, one requital of good for evil, one temptation to revenge resisted, one opportunity of destroying an enemy turned into an occasion for helping him? By this constant resistance to false concepts by this Christian warfare against spiritual wickedness in high places, carried on from day to day, from hour to hour, Christian Scientists are making themselves indispensable wherever they are established.

Christian Science stops the vicious contagion of evil at the word of command. It challenges and examines every opinion and belief which tends to enter human consciousness.
It demands that every thought shall justify itself before God ere it can be admitted to fellowship in the great company of right ideas. It lifts and weighs, assimilates or discards, and in so doing it is performing a public service which entitles it to the loyal consideration of those who are working along other lines with the same end in view of preserving the public health.

ABOUT NEWS ITEMS MAILED.

The Gazette is pleased to receive news items by mail, but those who send them often neglect to affix a two-cent stamp. One-cent stamps will not suffice to carry the letter through the mail, resulting in an additional payment before the letter can be delivered.

SCHOOLS WILL OPEN
HERE ON SEPT. 6TH.

Fall Term of Work Will Commence Soon—Few Changes in the Teaching Forces.

On Tuesday, September 6, the fall term of school will begin in the public schools of the city. Throughout the summer the janitors of the various schools and men hired by the board of education have been working in preparation for the opening of school, and schoolrooms, desks and other equipment are in good order. Grounds about the building have been cared for and present a fine appearance. At the Lincoln school, several improvements on the grounds are at present being made. A line fence about the yard on two sides has been put up, and along the street bordering the school cement curbing is being put in and new walks will be laid about the building in place of the old tar walks.
The grounds are also being graded.

Changes in Faculty.
While most of the teaching force of the past year will again resume their places in the schools on the opening day, there will be a few changes in the list. At the high school, Miss Selle Miller, who had charge of mathematics, has resigned and Miss Virginia, a sister of Prof. William Wyman, has been engaged. Miss Lenora Hall will be added to the force at the Adams school, taking charge of a mixed first and second grade, and at the Jefferson school Miss Carrie Selson has been put on as an additional teacher to teach in either a mixed first and second grade or a mixed second and third grade. The vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Jacobs, as kindergarten instructor, has not been filled, but four applications have been received for the place.
A new department of physical education for girls is planned for the school and Miss Lucile Cuyler, a graduate of Oberlin college, who has had considerable experience in the Y. W.
C. A. work has been secured to handle the department.

The Power Question
Did you ever figure out how much power is required to keep your line shafting and belts running?
In many plants, more power is required for this purpose than to do the actual work.
Does yours belong to this class?
Why not let one of our engineers look the plant over and make a report? It won't cost you anything.
We want you to use the kind of power that eliminates line shafting and belts entirely—Electric power through individual motor drive—but if it won't save you money, we'll tell you so.

Notice to the Voters of Rock County
As I have advertised, I am after the office because "I want it." 1st.—For the practical experience and education that comes with the work connected therewith; 2nd.— For the financial end of the position; 3rd.—For the chance it gives a man to become a trusted servant of the people and if elected, whatever advantages I derive therefrom I will use them to better fit myself to do further service for the county. If I am worthy of your support, remember me at the polls.

E. H. RANSOM
Republican Candidate for Sheriff of Rock County Your vote will be appreciated at the Primaries, September 6th, 1910

To the Voters of Rock County
I wish to thank you for the interest you are showing in my candidacy for the office of Register of Deeds.
If you are not familiar with my qualifications I will say that I began school teaching and left this work to accept a position in a railway office, where I worked ten years as bookkeeper and agent.
I have held my present position as town clerk for the past ten years, and during the last four years have spent the greater part of each year working as bookkeeper for the Rock County Sugar Co., my firm requiring the balance of my time.
This office experience will undoubtedly prove a valuable help to me in discharging the duties of Register of Deeds should I be elected to that office.
Let me urge you to attend the Primary Election Tuesday, September 6, 1910, and ask you to call the attention of your friends to the importance of voting on Primary Day.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, August 27, 1870.—Jottings.—A young lady who had been tendered a position in our public schools for the coming term, wrote a note declining the appointment on the ground that she had received a better offer. She was married last Tuesday.

The resolutions passed at the Germania War meeting, last night, indicate that a strong spirit of sympathy for the fatherland exists among that class of our citizens.

A crate of grapes was stolen from the fruit store of Mrs. Zehlinger on North Main street, last evening.

The fall term of Milton college commences on Wednesday of next week. The homeless boys of our city have taken up lodgings in one of the half-burned buildings on the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets.

Chicago and Milwaukee are agitated over our petrifled giant. It would seem that the people had been gluttoned with sensations of that sort, but they are over credulous and willing to swallow any improbable yarn that may be trumped up.

THEATER

When Joseph E. Howard, Mort H. Singer's star in "The Goddess of Liberty," comes to the Myers Grand for one night only, Friday, Sept. 2, formally opening that theater for the season, residents of Janesville will greet not only one of the foremost actors, authors of the American stage but an old friend. Mr. Howard's appearance here on Sept. 2 will not be his first by any means. He has been uplift in his vocation of writing music and for years he was noted the country over for his rendition of the song number. His consent to sing it here is a pretty compliment to the management.

With Mr. Howard this season is one of the best and strongest supporting companies. Mort H. Singer has ever personally directed. Mr. Howard replaces George Parsons in seen here in the past in such well remembered successes as "The Power of the Sinner" and "The District Leader" in both of which he won many admirers.

An item of interest to Janesville folks in connection with "The District Leader" is that Manager Myers has secured Mr. Howard's consent to sing "What's the Use of Dreaming" during the performance of "The Goddess of Liberty" here. It was this song that gave Mr. Howard the first rest, both vocally and from a beauty viewpoint, that ever came to Janesville and that Mr. Myers is opening his theatre, which has been handsomely redecorated and remodeled, with an attraction of unusual merit to exhibit from the fact that Mr. Howard in "The Goddess of Liberty" will be seen in but seven middle western cities this season.

My Cinderella Girl.

Richard Walton Tully, author of "The Rose of the Rancho" is the author of William Morris' "My Cinderella Girl" which will be seen at Myers Theatre Saturday, Sept. 3, matinee and evening. This piece is a farce concerning college life and baseball. Then plot revolves about Tom Harrington, a young man who has a bad case of baseballitis, but whose father is dead set against the game. The young man is on the Slawish college team, and is one of the best players, and he gets along very well with his father comes to visit him, when there are complications over complications, and the fun grows fast and furious.

Tom Harrington's explanation of baseball terms, which he twists to fit the occasion, are ludicrous, and his gibberish, while he is explaining things to his father are provocative of much laughter. The piece was made for laughing purposes and as such is a success. For it had a run of 200 nights in Chicago where it convulsed capacity house night after night for a year. Added to the excellent farce plot, a dozen song numbers from the pen of William Frederic, are given, and they add greatly to the interest of the play. The chorus of prize headless is sprightly and full of life, and the stage pictures are unique and pretty.

Mr. Norton staged the play, and he offers the piece with a splendid cast of export farceurs.

Land of Windmills.

The great windmill country is Argentina. Plenty of water from 15 to 200 feet underground throughout the vast, level, unbroken plain, an extensive area as one-third of this the whole United States, but all like our prairie lands; and wind blowing across the even stretches all the year round. The grazing lands are dotted with windmills, and Argentina keeps on importing them, chiefly from Yankeeland, at the rate of more than a thousand a month.

Great Wisconsin Land Opening

150,000 Acres in Sawyer County, Wisconsin, Released for Settlement.

$5.50 to $20 Per Acre and Easy Terms.

Yielding to the urgent and increasing demands of homeseekers, the lumber interests have at last released for settlement an enormous acreage of rich unoccupied land in the heart of Wisconsin's great dairy and big crop-producing sections. The American Immigration Company of Chicago, Inc., has secured this great body of land and is offering remarkable inducements to settlers and investors. The land is equal in productiveness to land that costs $100 to $150 per acre in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana or Ohio. The company is selling off this land at the remarkably low valuation of $5.50 to $20 per acre.

The terms are one-fourth to one-third cash and the balance in ten years.

This is an opportunity unparalleled in recent years. A man with a few hundred dollars and a determination to win can get one of these splendid farms and be independent in a few years. There is timber to be cleared away, but much of it is valuable hardwood, which can be turned into money at the nearby sawmills.

The timber can thus be made to pay for the land and provide lumber for farm buildings and fences.

Settlers in the Round Lake Country have the advantage of good markets, railroad facilities, telephone and mail service, schools, churches and good neighbors. It is a country of abundant rainfall and the pursuit of safety.

Hundreds are headed for the Round Lake Country, Sawyer County, determined to get a fresh start in a new country, where every man has a "ground floor opportunity."

Free books, maps and full information regarding the great development plans now under way, can be secured by addressing the local representative of the American Immigration Company.
